

I depend daily on my XM radio service to provide me weather and traffic related news. I don't think the NAB should be allowed legislation which would block delivery of this service to me and other satellite radio listeners. Repectfully,
Lee Green